PLAY INCLUSION PROJECT

KEY POINTS TO REMEMBER

Use Your Common Sense

- On hot days, remember to apply sunscreen, keep your child cool by removing coats or jackets, and ensure they stay hydrated with plenty of drinks
- In cold weather, make sure they are warmly wrapped up

We maintain a generally relaxed atmosphere with few rules. However, please do not allow your child to climb on objects (unless it's part of an activity) or break things. By demonstrating the correct way to do things, they will generally will copy you

DAY ONE

Ruby will have informed you where and what time to meet on your 1st day

Please arrive a few minutes before your start time stated on your Staff Rota

Please don't be nervous everyone is super friendly and everyone there was also new at some point

Your Area Manager will do the Morning Brief where you will find out the days proceedings, matching and any other important information

You will read through Profile Booklets for the child/ren you are supporting (You can keep referring back to this throughout the day)

You will shadow another staff member for your first couple of sessions

If you have any questions, don't be afraid to ask

Any important information will be displayed on the Crib Sheet
